Supplemental Security Income (SSI) Benefits sample letter

We are writing to tell you about changes in your Supplemental Security Income (SSI) payments. The following chart shows the SSI money due you for the months we changed. As you can see from the chart, we are changing your payments for both past and future months. The rest of this letter will tell you more about this change.

We explain how we figured the monthly payment amounts on the worksheets at the end of this letter. The explanation shows how your income, other than any SSI payments, affects your SSI payment. We include explanations only for months where payment amounts change.

Your Payments Will Be Changed As Follows:

From	Through	Amount Due Each Month
May 1, 2012	July 31, 2012	[redacted] This includes [redacted] from the State of New Jersey.
August 1, 2012	Continuing	[redacted] This includes [redacted] from the State of New Jersey.

Our Decision About How We Will Pay You

We have decided that your Supplemental Security Income payments will be paid directly to you.

What We Will Pay And When

- You will receive $2,257.00 for March 2009 around April 22, 2009.
- After that you will receive $2,257.00 on or about the fourth Wednesday of each month.
- These and any future payments will go to the financial institution you selected. Please let us know if you change your mailing address, so we can send you letters directly.

The day we make payments on this record is based on your date of birth.

Other Social Security Benefits

The benefit described in this letter is the only one you can receive from Social Security. If you think that you might qualify for another kind of Social Security benefit in the future, you will have to file another application.

Your Responsibilities

You are due disability benefits because you are expected to be disabled under our rules for at least 5 full calendar months. Therefore, you should let us know if your health improves or you are able to return to work.

The decisions we made on your claim are based on information you gave us. If this information changes, it could affect your benefits. For this reason, it is important that you report changes to us right away.
